Princeton Symphony Orchestra

The Princeton Symphony Orchestra (PSO) is a cultural centerpiece of the Princeton community and one of New Jersey's finest music organizations, a position established through performances of beloved masterworks, innovative music by living composers, and an extensive network of educational programs offered to area students free of charge.

Led by Edward T. Cone Music Director Rossen Milanov, the PSO presents classical, pops, and chamber music programs of the highest artistic quality, supported by lectures and related events that supplement the concert experience. Through PSO BRAVO!, the orchestra produces impactful education programs in partnership with local schools and arts organizations. With considerable community support and funding from the National Endowment for the Arts, the PSO is also a multiple-year recipient of the New Jersey State Council on the Arts' highest honors. The PSO has been recognized for its commitment to new music with an ASCAP Award for Adventurous Programming and a Copland Fund Award. The only independent, professional orchestra to make its home in Princeton, the PSO regularly performs at historic Richardson Auditorium on the campus of Princeton University.

Rossen Milanov celebrates his tenth anniversary with the Princeton Symphony Orchestra (PSO) in the 2019-20 season. Under his leadership, the orchestra has established an excellent artistic reputation and has been recognized for its innovation and vital role in the community.

We appreciate the support of our patrons, friends, sponsors, and all who value the arts in Princeton.

Conductor

Nell Flanders' conducting credits include performances with the Buffalo Philharmonic Orchestra, the Princeton Symphony Orchestra (PSO), and The Chelsea Symphony. In her role as assistant conductor with the PSO, she has conducted the orchestra in the American Repertory Ballet's premiere of Beauty and the Beast at State Theatre New Jersey and in concert at the Robert P. Marasco Center for the Performing Arts in Monroe Township. She was the assistant conductor for Peabody Opera Theater and served as cover conductor for JoAnn Falletta with the Buffalo Philharmonic.

An enthusiastic proponent of today's music, Ms. Flanders has conducted orchestral premieres with groups including The Secret Opera Company, Peabody's Now Hear This ensemble, and The Chelsea Symphony.

Ms. Flanders is deeply committed to educating the next generation of musicians and music lovers. She is on the faculty of the Manhattan School of Music Precollege Division where she conducts the Symphony Orchestra. She also directs the Symphonic Wind Ensemble at the Aaron Copland School of Music, CUNY-Queens College. From 2016-2019, she was the conductor and music director of the advanced youth orchestra of the National Concert Association in Panama City, Panama.

As a violinist, Ms. Flanders has performed as soloist with The Chelsea Symphony and the Philharmonisch Orkest Mozart in Amsterdam. Her orchestral work includes performances with the Netherlands Philharmonic Orchestra and Chicago Opera Theater among many others. A musician of great versatility, she plays in a variety of genres, including classical, baroque, tango, blues, and contemporary.

A graduate of the Oberlin Conservatory with a Bachelor of Music degree in violin performance with a minor in piano performance, Ms. Flanders received a Master of Music degree in orchestral conducting from the Mannes School of Music-The New School, and is currently pursuing a doctoral degree in orchestral conducting with Marin Alsop at the Peabody Institute in Baltimore.

In addition to her musical work, Ms. Flanders enjoys rock climbing, dancing Argentine tango, and exploring other cultures through travel and language study.

NJ Tap Dance Ensemble

Deborah Mitchell, Artistic Director

New Jersey Tap Dance Ensemble (NJTAP) is a professional touring tap dance company with a mission to preserve and promote the American art form of rhythm tap dancing. For the past 25 years under the leadership of its founder and artistic director, Deborah Mitchell, the company has served audiences and artists throughout the entire tri-state region. NJTAP is Jersey Arts 2019 and 2018 People's Choice Award Winner in the category of Favorite Modern/Cultural Dance Company. The company has developed some of today's most notable tap dancers that have appeared on Broadway in Riverdance, Billy Elliot, Play On!, and Black and Blue, in The Cotton Club and Happy Feet motion pictures, on television in Boardwalk Empire and So You Think You Can Dance, and at Carnegie Hall and the Apollo.

Princeton High School Choir

The Princeton High School Choir has an unusually rich tradition of choral excellence that is unique among American high schools. The choir has performed extensively in North America and Europe, touring as representatives of the Princeton community. The 85 members of the choir are selected after careful audition of nearly two hundred and fifty voices in the high school's choral program.

The foundation of the Choir's repertoire is rich in the study of Western choral music. Its curriculum includes traditional sacred and secular choral music spanning Medieval through 20th century repertoire, contemporary music, staged opera and operetta productions, and American folk music, Spirituals, and Gospel repertoire.

The Princeton High School Choir has a history of collaborating with notable composers, conductors, and guest clinicians and is featured every December with the Princeton Symphony Orchestra. Most recently, members of the Princeton High School Choir premiered We Live in Each Other's Shadows by composer Dan Trueman and sang choruses from Henry Purcell's King Arthur with the Dryden Ensemble of Princeton. The choir hosted a Gospel Festival in 2009, conducted by composer Raymond Wise and featuring his music. In 1995, the choir worked with conductor Andrew Parrott on Tippett's Dance, Clarion Air. Maurice Duruflé conducted the choir in a performance of his Requiem in 1971. In 1963, Gian Carlo Menotti invited the choir to perform at his Festival dei Due Mondi in Spoleto, Italy, and Zoltán Kodály conducted the choir for the International Association of Choral Directors in Budapest.

The choir has performed at the ACDA Regional and National Conventions, the White House, and the Washington National Cathedral, and has received numerous awards and honors.

Sing-Along

Joy to the World!

Joy to the world, the Lord is come;
let earth receive her King.
Let every heart prepare Him room,
and heaven and nature sing,
and heaven and nature sing,
and heaven, and heaven and nature sing.

Deck the Halls

Deck the halls with boughs of holly,
Fa la la la la la la la la.
'Tis the season to be jolly,
Fa la la la la, la la la la.
Don we now our gay apparel,
Fa la la, la la la, la la la.
Toll the ancient yuletide carol,
Fa la la la la, la la la la.

God Rest Ye Merry Gentlemen

God rest ye merry, gentlemen;
let nothing you dismay.
Remember, Christ our Savior
was born on Christmas day
to save us all from Satan's power
when we were gone astray.
Oh, tidings of comfort and joy, comfort and joy.
Oh, tidings of comfort and joy.

Sing-Along

Hark! The Herald Angels Sing

Hark! the herald angels sing
Glory to the new-born King;
peace on earth, and mercy mild,
God and sinners reconciled!
Joyful, all ye nations rise,
join the triumph of the skies;
with the angelic host proclaim,
Christ is born in Bethlehem!
Hark! the herald angels sing
Glory to the new-born King!

Silent Night

Silent night, holy night,
all is calm, all is bright
round yon Virgin Mother and Child.
Holy Infant so tender and mild,
sleep in heavenly peace,
sleep in heavenly peace.

Jingle Bells

Dashing through the snow in a one-horse open sleigh, over the fields we go laughing all the way: "ha, ha, ha!"
Bells on bob-tail ring, making spirits bright;
what fun it is to ride and sing a sleighing song tonight. Oh!

Jingle bells, jingle bells, jingle all the way;
oh what fun it is to ride in a one-horse open sleigh, hey!
Jingle bells, jingle bells, jingle all the way;
oh what fun it is to ride in a one-horse open sleigh.

Sing-Along

Oh Come, All Ye Faithful

Glory to God; Glory in the highest!

Oh, come let us adore Him.

Oh, come let us adore Him.

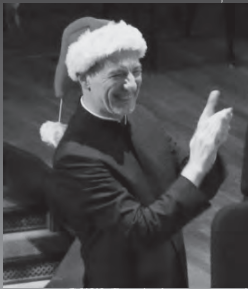

Oh, come let us adore Him, Christ the Lord.

Jingle Bells (reprise)

Jingle bells, jingle bells, jingle all the way.

Jingle bells, jingle bells, jingle all the way.

Happy holidays!

May the days ahead be merry and bright!

The Next 10! Campaign

Celebrating Rossen Milanov's
10th Anniversary and Building
a Dynamic Future for the PSO

We are proud to announce The Next 10!, a comprehensive campaign to secure a stronger financial foundation for the Princeton Symphony Orchestra (PSO).

In his past 10 years as music director, Rossen Milanov has led the Princeton Symphony Orchestra through a significant period of growth and success. Highlights include achieving a healthy financial position, new commissions, new creative partnerships, and the expansion of our PSO BRAVO! education programs.

Together we can ensure that the Princeton Symphony Orchestra continues to serve this community with enriching and inspirational musical experiences. The Next 10! Campaign will accomplish this by increasing our endowment and raising funds to support ongoing innovation:

- The Endowment Fund generates income in perpetuity to ensure the long-term financial health of the PSO.
- The Innovation Fund allows for strategic investment in new and innovative programs beyond our core offerings.

Join us in support of The Next 10! Campaign, and celebrate Rossen's 10th anniversary with a gift to encourage innovation and secure the PSO's future!

Portia Sonnenfeld Legacy Society

Portia Sonnenfeld established the Little Orchestra of Princeton in 1980 with the help of an impressive and visionary group of leaders including Ed Cone and Frank Taplin. Portia's dedication and creativity in presenting classical music lives on through the Portia Sonnenfeld Legacy Society, which ensures that the Princeton Symphony Orchestra (PSO) will continue to thrive for generations to come.

A legacy gift is the perfect way to express appreciation for the PSO's performances and programs. There are many estate-planning opportunities that provide the personal satisfaction of creating a musical legacy while securing potential income tax advantages.

These gifts help us maintain our financial stability, grow artistically, and expand our education and community engagement programs.

We recognize and thank the following donors who have pledged or given legacy gifts:
