

Princeton Symphony Orchestra

Donor Privacy Policy

The Princeton Symphony Orchestra is committed to protecting the privacy of its donors, whether the donation is made online, by mail, or any other method.

When you make a donation or register for an event, you provide your name, address, email and often payment information as well including, in many circumstances, credit card data. We protect your information in a variety of ways, as described below.

Use and Disclosure of Personal Information

- We do NOT rent or exchange lists that may include your Personal Information, collected on the website or through any other activities, with any outside organization.
- We will not send you mailings on behalf of other organizations.
- We will collect payment information, billing address and other information necessary to process a donation or event registration.
- Our database vendor has access to your Personal Information, but is bound by strict confidentiality rules and not permitted to use or download our donor data for any reason.
- Credit card information is NOT stored on our database or in our offices. Any such information sent in written form is destroyed immediately after processing.
- We will use your information to comply with the law or in the good faith belief that such action is necessary to conform to the requirements of law or comply with legal process served on us.
- We will use the personal information to protect against potential fraud. We may verify with third parties the information collected in the course of processing a gift, event registration or other donation. If you use a credit or debit card on the website, we may use card authorization and fraud screening services to verify that your card information and address matches the information that you supplied to us and that the card being used has not been reported lost or stolen.
- You have the right to review information that we have collected about you. To review that information please contact us in writing.
- You have the right to request that your personal information be removed from solicitation and other mailing lists. To request removal, please contact us in writing.
