Princeton Symphony Orchestra will host Thursday night outdoor concerts at Morven Museum and Garden in Princeton in May. PSO staff

By Community Bulletin

The Princeton Symphony Orchestra will present a springtime series of live chamber music concerts at Morven Museum and Garden in Princeton beginning 6 p.m. Thursday, May 6, with "Springtime Strings" showcasing the PSO Strings.

On the program will be Jessie Montgomery's "Strum" and Pyotr Ilyich Tchaikovsky's "Serenade for Strings." Outdoor seating will be in marked-off, socially distanced "pods" for up to two people, and masks will be required at all times in keeping with current state health guidelines. Tickets are $35 a pod.
