

Festival Bar Cashier (Seasonal, June)

The Princeton Festival is the premier summer program of the Princeton Symphony Orchestra (PSO), a cultural centerpiece of the Princeton community and one of New Jersey's finest music organizations. Since 2005, The Princeton Festival's annual season has offered a multi-genre festival of the performing arts, including opera, musical theater, jazz, chamber music, symphonic and pops concerts, piano, organ and vocal recitals, dance, and world music. The Festival also offers a free public lecture series prior to each season and engages students and adults alike through its intergenerational community programs. It features internationally-renowned professional artists and regularly collaborates with other New Jersey performing arts organizations.

The Festival is presented in an outdoor performance tent built on the grounds of Morven Museum & Garden in Princeton, NJ.
